The history of the “black art” is one of brilliant inventions, innovations rejected or developed and sudden radical change on a breathtaking scale. And yet it always remains a story about people. At the Leipzig Museum of Printing Arts, the human touch makes printing history come alive again: rare historical machines and printing presses are shown in action, enabling visitors to experience the art of printing with all their senses.

La historia del arte negro es una de las mas brillantes invenciones, innovaciones impulsadas por el desarrollo como si tuvieran un cambio radical en una escala incalculable . The museum’s collection of around 100 working machines and press for historical casting, composing and printing techniques really brings the history of printing alive combining a museum and an active workshop, visitors still can experience printing process first hand. The Museum of Printing Arts also houses a handcraft book bindery, a workshop of a wood engraving and a unique collection of more than 4,000 different typefaces from European and oriental provenance. Three special exhibitions per year focus on individual theme related to printing and all its various facets. The current exhibition, which runs until mid-May 2012 is entitled “From lithography to offset printing, the Kunstanstalt Carl Garte Leipzig and the collection of Hans Garte”. It shows extraordinary examples of multi-colour lithography and early examples of offset printing from the beginning of the twentieth century.

Tres exhibiciones especiales por ano enfocadas en temas especificos relativos a la impresion y todos sus variados aspectos. La exposicion actual, que estara abierta a mediados de mayo de 2012, lleva el titulo de Litografia e impresion offset, Kunstanstalt Carlo Garte Leipizig es una coleccion de Hans Garte. El lleva al publico extraordinarios ejemplos de la litografia multicolores de impresion offset de inicios del siglo XX.

The Museum sees the future as lying in intelligent networking of print and Internet along the lines of “Augmented Reality” – with the difference that all the senses are addressed simultaneously at the Museum. When it comes to the media mix of the future, the Museum recommends occasionally taking a look back at the history of printing technology so as to understand the here and now better and actively use expertise from the past as a source of inspiration for the future.

El museo anticipa que en un futuro se encontrara en una red inteligente de impresion e internet a partir de la realidad aumentada – con una diferencia, todos esos sentidos tendran lugar al mismo tiempo en el museo. Cuando se ve venir la media del futuro, el museo nos remite al pasado de la tecnologia de impresion para que se pueda entender mejor aqui y ahora de manera activa utilizar la experiencia del pasado como fuente de inspiracion para el futuro.

DESCRIPTION OF PROJECT AND TASKS

Descripcion del proyecto y de las tareas

The Museum of Printing Arts needs to build an identity that will be used consistently through all its documents. Your job is to create this corporate identity; with colours, photos and illustrations, typefaces, etc. This will be applied to several promotional items including a Letterhead and Business Card, Entry Ticket and Shopping Bag.

El Museum of Printing Arts precisa construir una identidad visual que sera presentada en varios de sus documentos. Su trabajo e crear una identidad corporativa, con colores, fotos, ilustraciones, tipografias, etc. Esa identidad visual sera aplicada en muchas piezas promocionales , incluyendo papeleria y tarjetas de visita, tickets y bolsas de compras.

Throughout the whole project you should consider that the museum represents the art of letterpress printing. Due to this, some documents will be produced with this printing method. When you design remember some of the limitations of letterpress printing. Such as fine lines, large solids and halftone screens or the transparent quality of letterpress ink.

Tenga en mente todo el tiempo que el museo es un icono de arte de impresion de letras. En funcion de esto, algunos documentos tiene que ser disenados segun el metodo de impresion . Cuando trabajar o disenar, recuerde siempre de algunas de las limitaciones de impresion letterpress, tales como lineas, solidos, o mejor tambien las cualidades de transparencia de las tintas de letterpress.

Therefore the client asked for a clean and straight forward approach. The Design must be forward-looking and modern. Must explicitly be "not conservative."
