INTRODUCTION / 說明

Project :

Task 1: Create a masthead for the magazine with the name “SPANNER in the works” for the organisation ATTAC

Task 2: “Design a magazine SPANNER in the works

試題：

任務一：為 ATTAC 這個協會設計一個雜誌標題，名為「SPANNER in the works」

任務二：設計一本名為 SPANNER in the works 的雜誌

Description : / 說明：

ATTAC is an international organization involved in the alter-globalization movement. We oppose neo-liberal globalization and develop social, ecological, and democratic alternatives so as to guarantee fundamental rights for all. Specifically, we fight for the regulation of financial markets, the closure of tax havens, the introduction of global taxes to finance global public goods, the cancellation of the debt of developing countries, fair trade, and the implementation of limits to free trade and capital flows.

ATTAC 是一個專注於國際動態議題的國際性協會。我們反對新的國際自由主義以及發展社會、生態、外交替代，以保障所有人的基本人權。尤其，我們為經濟市場的限制抗爭、終止逃稅天堂、引介國際稅收來援助國際公眾的貨品、取消發展中國家的債款、公平交易，以及限制履行自由交易和外資流動。

A word on our history

The ‘Association pour la Taxation des Transactions financière et l'Aide aux Citoyens’ (Association for the Taxation of financial Transactions and Aid to Citizens) was founded in France in December 1998 after the publication in the Monde Diplomatique of an editorial entitled ‘Désarmer les marchés’ (Disarm the markets) that launched the notion of creating an association to promote the Tobin tax.

關於我們的歷史

這個「Association pour la Taxation des Transactions financière et l'Aide aux Citoyens」（金融課稅處理和協助市民協會）1998 年 12 月在 Monde Diplomatique 發表一篇名為「Désarmer les marchés」（緩和市場）的社論後成立於法國。這促使了一個概念來設立一個協會宣傳 Tobin tax（托賓稅）。

An international organization

The organization expanded very rapidly around the world with an ATTAC network around an international charter set up in 1999. Today, the association is active in some 40 countries, with over a thousand local groups and hundreds of organizations supporting the network.

一個國際性組織

這個組織在世界上擴張非常的快速，透過 ATTAC 網絡的國際特權，創立於 1999。今日，這個協會活躍在 40 多個國家中，有超過一千個當地團隊和數以百計的組織支持這個網絡。

Target market: / 目標市場：

Young people between 16-35 years who are interested in the alter-globalization movement, which emphasizes values such as democracy, social and economic justice, environmental protection and human rights as an alternative to the current globalism.
They are either a member of ATTAC or are thinking of joining.

Attac sees the domination of financial markets on society as the main obstacle to the shift to a new mode of development that would be social, ecological, democratic, and relying on solidarity. In order to bring this domination to an end we demand:

Attac看見金融市場的壟斷是最主要的阻礙之一，為了這個模式，一個新的發展模式：社會、經濟、外交和對團隊依賴繼而產生。為結束這個壟斷，我們認為：

- Limits to capital flow and regulations such as a tax on financial transactions so as to drastically reduce all speculative moves.
 - The socialization of the banking sector so that the banks' investment policies will be governed by social and ecological imperatives and not by short-term profits.
 - The prohibition of any capital transit via tax havens to put an end to occult financial activities and to tax evasion.
 - Restrictions to TNCs through international regulations.
 - The cancellation of the public debt of developing countries.
 - An increase in taxes on financial incomes and on private estates;
 - A fair organization of international trade that is favourable to developing countries, wage earners, and the environment.
 - Access to common goods of humankind (water, education, healthcare...) so that human rights are adhered to.
 - Global taxes to finance access to common goods, namely taxes on TNC profits, polluting activities (carbon tax), on financial transactions, on large private estates.
 - A social and ecological agriculture without GM, respectful of the principle of food sovereignty and making it possible for peasants to earn a decent living both in the North and in the South.
 - Ways of solving conflicts peacefully (Attac favours non violence in its actions).
- Attac also fights any extension of commodification, whether through privatization of public services, the development of pension funds, the privatization of social security, speculation on the right to pollute through a carbon market.

我們的想法

(Main text:) (主要文案 :)

Attac is a movement opposing neo-liberal globalization
Neo-liberal globalization, based on the 'liberalization' of trade and financial markets, started at the end of the 1970s and has led to the total domination of financial markets on society as a whole. It is an instrument designed to further the enrichment of a tiny minority of investors at the expense of the rest of the population and the planet. Its effects are detrimental to.

Attac是一個反對新國際自由主義的運動

新國際自由主義，利基於「自由化」的貿易和經濟市場，開始於1970年代末期，並且全權主導金融市場。這是一個手段，讓世界其他人的支出圖利少數投資客，而這些影響損害了：

Social rights / 社會權利

neo-liberal globalization facilitates the shipping of businesses and jobs out of the country and fosters the worldwide competition between workers and, consequently, their precarization ;

It covers up tax evasion thanks to tax havens and sets in motion the competition between national tax systems and thus the reduction of public services.

(以上為編輯內文文字)

新國際自由主義將商業與工作運輸至其他國家，以及支配世界的商業競爭。由於逃稅天堂，以致於收不到稅，而減少了對公共服務的建設。

The planet / 這個星球

Neo-liberal globalization makes it possible for transnational companies to spread their production on the surface of the globe based solely on costs, so that the various parts of a product can be manufactured at different locations on the planet, generating thousands of miles of transport; It sets up a competition between national environmental regulations and thus pushes them to the lowest possible level; It tends to commercialize all aspects of society and thus extends endlessly the consumer and growth society.

(以上為編輯內文文字)

新國際自由主義促使跨國公司將他們的商品傾銷，並且為了讓商品價格單一化，他們將產品拆成很多部分，分別送到不同國家製造。讓價格可以壓至最低。這個趨勢使社會許多面向永無止境的商業化。

North South solidarity / 南北一致

As it organizes tax evasion, neo-liberal globalization imposes a new form of colonialism through corruption of elites in countries of the South; Through free trade it imposes competition between farmers in the South and the large agro-business owners of the North ; Via the debt mechanism, it allows the World Bank and the IMF to impose massive deregulation policies on developing countries.

(以上為編輯內文文字)

當一群逃稅者組織在一起時，新國際自由主義迫使一個新的複製模式出現。透過自由貿易，迫使南方的農夫必須與北方的企業化農場相競爭。而從負載的機制裡，世界銀行和IMF被迫解除許多開發中國家政治上的限制。

Democracy / 民主政治

WTO, IMF, World Bank and the European Union set up new global economic rules outside any democratic debate: most international negotiations on trade or financial regulation occur away from the people; Neo-liberal globalization promotes the concentration of information dissemination in the hands of a few media and internet conglomerates. The commercialization of all spheres of society reduces people to mere consumers at the expense of their citizenship. And so, over the past 30 years we have witnessed a substantial enrichment of capital holders to the detriment of the vast majority of wage earners, together with a continued deterioration of the condition of our planet. In the OECD countries, the proportion of wage earners in the producing sectors has declined by 10% while the return to capital has risen since the mid-1970s. In the United States, for instance, 60% of the growth recorded since 1980 has been captured by the wealthiest 1%.

(以上為編輯內文文字)

WTO, IMF, 世界銀行和歐盟在其他任何的外交債務以外設立一個新的全球經濟規則：大部分的貿易協商或金融債務與人們疏離；新國際自由主義主張將資訊集中在少數的媒體與網路手中。經濟金融都掌握在少數人手中。

How did this come about? / 這如何造成？

In the sixties and seventies capital was not very mobile, a tight net of capital transfer controls hampered the free flow of the deutschemark, schilling, pound etc. Due to this limited opportunities for capital flight taxation was reasonably fair. At this time the economy boomed, it grew faster than in the previous twenty years, full employment was close by and the differences in incomes began to shrink slowly. This scenario changed at the end of the seventies when neo-liberal politics like Thatcherism and Reaganomics got established worldwide. One of the core elements of neo-liberalism is the free flow of capital, but once capital is totally free to move it is difficult for Finance Ministers to tax it accordingly.

More and more Tax Havens / 更多的免稅天堂

It gets even more difficult when, in the course of liberalisation, tax havens appear. You find tax havens not only in the Caribbean or Pacific (Bahamas, Samoa) but also right in the middle of Europe - Luxembourg, Liechtenstein, Monaco, Switzerland and Austria. In tax havens capitals gains and financial wealth are not only save from taxation, but the financial authorities in the countries of origin don't get informed because of bank secrecy. The result is that the profiteers of globalisation contribute less and less to our common goods - hospitals, education, public transport, environmental protection, sport and culture.

Tax Competition Begins / 稅收競爭開始

Tax havens not only attract tax evaders, they also put pressure on other countries to reduce their tax rates on income, profit and wealth. In the last twenty years almost all countries have been competing in reducing taxes on income, profits, and capital gains. In the industrialised countries the average tax on business profits has dropped from 51% to 35% since 1985. Tax on interest yield from 47% to 33% and the top income tax bracket plummeted from 52% to 42%, and this process is by no means at an end. Indeed some economists consider that in the long run it won't be possible to tax profits at all. For some multinational corporations this is already the case - they file their profit tax returns in tax havens, they use tax loopholes or sometimes even manipulate their balance sheets. The result is they pay little or no tax where they are actually operating. Some examples for Austria: Creditanstalt (1998 and 99) the Spar AG (1997 and 98) and Shell Austria (1977) or the Immuno AG (1977). This is not just unfair for the community, but also for the small and midium sized businesses that can't use these 'creative possibilities' and suffer under an unfair competitive disadvantage.

AI Gore's alarming new guide to what needs to change in world politics is essential reading

(AI Gore (高爾) 對世界政治宣佈需要改變的新指標，為必讀的一本書)

According to reliable reports, the new leadership in Beijing has been reading Alexis de Tocqueville. It's not hard to see why China's elite might look for guidance to the aristocratic French thinker. In his classic text The Ancien Regime and the Revolution (1856), de Tocqueville wrote that the danger of revolution is not greatest in the depths of poverty and despair but when conditions have been improving – especially if some are benefiting far more than others. The relevance of this for China is obvious. The implications for policy are rather less so, since de Tocqueville also warned that for a bad government, the moment of greatest danger comes when it starts to reform. In such circumstances, repression might be a more prudent course of action. This troubling ambiguity could explain why Chinese readers, struggling to decipher the intentions of their rulers, made de Tocqueville's book a national bestseller.

From a parochial British perspective, what might be most significant is the fact that China's rulers are reading de Tocqueville at all. It is difficult to imagine David Cameron devoting any time to a 19th-century thinker. Along with much of the political class, the prime minister seems resistant to the notion that history has anything to teach, and looks for guidance to writers who extol the wisdom of crowds, explain the momentous importance of tipping points or pass on the revelation that humans are social animals – the fleeting nostrums of the airport bookstore. But if our rulers will not read the classics then they must read AI Gore, who, after eight years of reading and thinking, has produced a guide for the politically perplexed that will surely endure.

The nature of the crisis (危機的本身)

A constantly increasing disparity of wealth is an intrinsic aspect of capitalism. Wealth grows faster than workers' income. Large amounts of wealth grow faster than small amount. In some countries, wealth taxes exist. But the tax rates are much lower than the growth rates of large fortunes. Therefore, strong political correctives to create a fairer distribution are necessary. This applies even more in the currently dominant form of capitalism driven by financial markets, since here the disparity in the distribution of prosperity has been growing especially rapidly. As this polarization of the distribution of wealth grows, so does the amount of capital circulating around the world in search of profitable investment opportunities. In particular since the 1970s, this mass has increased dramatically. It became less and less possible to exploit this capital profitably in the productive economy. In the search for new sources of profit, the international financial markets became more and more important. This transition was accompanied and fostered by constantly increasing deregulation and globalization of the financial markets, and led to a quite novel dynamism involving the polarization of the distribution of income and assets. The increasing dominance of the financial markets has allowed gigantic profits – and also losses – to be made within seconds. Thus the system is becoming more and more unstable. More and more speculative bubbles develop, which must burst sooner or later.

Fiscal and Economic Union

公債與經濟統一

(Main text:) (主要文案：)

Fiscal pact, ESM, six-pack, two-pack (公債協議、ESM、六項、二項)

Under the pressure of the crisis, the powerful are pushing through their murky "reform" measures at a rapid pace. The logic is always the same: Reduce debts through cuts in social services and privatisation, raise competitiveness through wage cuts and eliminate workers rights. The consequences: A deep recession, further aggravating the economic crisis. In southern Europe the 'Troika' of the ECB, EU Commission, and the IMF dictate one so called Memorandum (austerity package) after another. The reality is a devastating social crisis. Mass unemployment, poverty, homelessness, soaring crime and waves of suicides are once again part of European everyday life. And "coincidentally" our democracies are being hollowed out: highly indebted countries are forced to transfer their sovereignty from their elected parliaments to the EU. Every day, the technocrats of the EU Commission and the ECB gain yet more power for themselves.

Can things get even worse, after all the reform packages so far that have established a neo-liberal, anti-democratic politics throughout Europe? Yes they can. In the European Council the introduction of a fiscal and economic union is being prepared right now. The diktat of austerity, through which Greece, Spain and Portugal suffer right now, will be institutionalised on the European level. Or as the European Commission President Barroso put it: A quiet revolution has been taking place.
