The source of traffic jam is the increase in the volume of vehicles on the road without the addition of adequate infrastructure, not to mention the number of disorderly road users. When we go to the office, campus or other needs, our dependence on private vehicles is very large, imagine that only one family can use 3 to 4 vehicles, which is influenced by the ease of ownership of private vehicles.

But just imagine if everyone uses public transportation every day, of course the volume of vehicles on the streets will decrease, or at least every person in a big city, Indonesia has a mindset like Gustavo Petro or like people in Japan, who say that people who have cars are poor people.

So it's no wonder the Japanese never complained about traffic jams. While the mindset of Indonesians in general owning a private vehicle is a great / wealthy person and so on, so that everyone is competing to have a private vehicle. It is true, public transportation is often the cause of traffic jams too, due to disorderly drivers, now how if we change our mindset to be "let's improve the quality of public vehicles that are more comfortable and safe", we remind both public transportation drivers to be more orderly.

many people do not realize that by riding public transportation instead you show people who have money, aka rich people. Everywhere we go, we have to pay cash and have to be ready with some money in a pocket or wallet, and we can't owe alias have to pay directly if you don't want to get a scolding from the driver. Humans are created as social creatures. Humans cannot live as themselves without the presence of socialization with other creatures.

Have we ever asked for an address or just ask for trite asking for the purpose of our dismissal of people who are equally ashamed of public transportation with us? On the sidelines of the journey to our destination, many people are silent, falling asleep, gadgets, daydreaming, etc., which we can meet on public transportation, yesss... facilitated for when we ride public transportation, there also we will be able to find humans it is social, and we are aware of the same created, without discriminating between groups. Interacting in public transportation can be fun for those who like to make friends.

"Time cannot be repeated", that is the saying that we often hear, and the equivalent of that is "Angkot cannot wait".

We already know that every public vehicle has a special stop or terminal, be thankful if your home / office / campus is close to the stop.

But if not? we must be willing to race against time if we don't want to be late, another thing is if we use private vehicles, we can determine our own direction, but with public transportation, we cannot just ask the driver to go through the road we want.

This is where our time management is tested, we learn to manage our time well, we must know when the public transportation passes, the route taken or not, and not to mention stop at unexpected places.

interesting right? still prestige also use public transportation? It turns out that using public transportation cannot be underestimated, because using public transportation, many interesting things and the benefits we feel. Let's enjoy the ride life is not always easy, don't be whiny, enjoy all conditions, surely you will easily be grateful

5 Ways to Ride Trans Jakarta, Practically

As the capital city of Indonesia, Jakarta is the center of a business city with a lot of traffic activities such as work and college. Available public transportation facilities help residents from Jakarta and outside Jakarta to reach their destination. One of the well-known public transportation is Transjakarta Bus or commonly called busway. Never been to Transjakarta and want to try? Check out the steps on how to take the busway here!

5 Ways to Take the Jakarta Busway

1. Go to the Nearest Busway Stop from Home

the first way to take a busway that you have to do is go to the bus stops that are scattered in various regions in Jakarta.

2. Use the E-money Card

First to take the busway, Buddy Ticket had to buy ticket tickets at the bus stop to get on the Transjakarta bus. However, now Transjakarta is no longer providing transactions in the form of paper tickets. How to ride the busway today is that people only need to use e-money cards.

3. Learn the Transjakarta Route

The number of bus stops, corridor routes to different types of buses will be confusing for those who have never used a busway. Before riding the busway, make sure you already know the destination you want to go to. A bus lane map is available that can be uploaded to a smartphone by visiting the official Transjakarta website.

4. Prioritize the Chair for the Elderly

Once you ride the busway, you can find a seat during the trip. Wait a minute! Did you know that in the Transjakarta bus there is a special seating area. The next way to take the busway you should pay attention to is to not sit carelessly. In the front half of the bus, it is a special area for female passengers so that no male passenger can sit or stand there.

5. Tap the Card to Exit the Stop

Once you reach the stop near the destination, there is one important thing to do. The e-money card that you have used when departing is useful to get out of the busway stop. How to ride the last busway is important to do, because if you lose a card then you can't get out of the bus stop. Don't worry, the card balance won't be deducted when you tap it at the destination location.

Survival Tips: Transjakarta in Busy Hours

On Monday last week, Transjakarta officially added six new routes through Depok and Bekasi. Of course, this new route is connected to other major Transjakarta corridors in the capital. It's also no secret that transportation that has a special lane is also a mainstay of students. So, don't be surprised if the presence of six new routes gets a good reception. One of them came from Priska Aprilia, a student at SMKN 27 Jakarta. Long being a Transjakarta user, Priska has found it quite helpful. "The existence of additional routes makes my journey closer. But unfortunately, at rush hour such as leaving or returning the bus office people must be really tight, just standing hard hehe," he said.

Well, for those of you who want to stand comfortably in Transjakarta, you don't need to look for a shoulder to lean on. Just follow the three tips from Zetizen so that you can stay strong despite being hit by the invasion of other Transjakarta users. Let's just call it a stick stand and here are the tips!

5 Easy Tips for Choosing a Make-Up Tool for Beginners

1. Stand Still

Because I already know that getting into the bus is sometimes difficult because of its fullness, so if it's already inside don't move too much huh. Try to lower your installment rate to the minimum level. Refrain from playing mobile phones because it can make you unaware of your preoccupation.

2. Find Position

Many ways how to find a comfortable standing position. Even though it's straight like a stick, it can still be varied. Want to stand straight ahead? Can. Want to stand straight back, aka turning your body? Can also. Nyerong also allows the origin of the position you choose is to survive until you get out of Transjakarta.

3. Be Prepared

Last but not least is to prepare yourself, especially the stomach. Why is that? Because if the stomach rumbles are usually easier to rise in tension.

Recommended Places to Eat and Enjoy Coffee Around TJ Bus stops and Stations in Central Jakarta

The mobility of Jakarta residents as a metropolitan city is indeed so high that people can say that they often eat or just hang out for coffee outside the house.

If you are bored with the choice of places to eat and hang out, that's all, calm down first! Make no mistake, in fact Jakarta provides so many places to eat and cool coffee shops that tastes a shame if missed. What's more, these places to eat and have coffee are not far near various Transjakarta stops, MRT stations, and also train stations.

Curious? Do you want to go around Jakarta in public transportation using the Transjakarta bus, commuter line, to the MRT? Summarizes the timeline of page accounts from bus stops to bus stops (darihalte_kehalte) that specifically recommend places to eat, coffee, museums, and events around TransJakarta stops, MRT, LRT and KRL stations, Friday (4/26/2019) following recommendations around the Jakarta area A center that you can try.

1. Dukuh Atas

Sudirman cart meatballs

Who doesn't like meatballs? Now for the meatball carts, you can try the meatball carts located in front of Waroeng Mee, on Blora Street. Very close to the Sudirman train station or Dukuh Atas MRT. One serving of a bowl is only priced at Rp. 15,000!

Kala Kopi

Don't want to eat heavy? Just want a beautiful coffee? Can you visit Kala Kopi, for this coffee shop From Stop to Stop try a glass ofAmericano which is priced at Rp. 24,000 and a glass of Milk Coffee which is only sold at Rp. 18,000 per glass.

2. Gondangdia

Mr. Hadi's canteen

Located only about 300 meters from the Gondangdia KRL station, the "oldskul" food stalls. Dining here, you can try a plate of special Cingur salad with rice cake, which costs only IDR 35,000. In addition to the delicious cingur salad, Soto Madura in the canteen is also recommended to try.

Mrs. Tinah's gudeg stall

The location is right next to the Gondangdia KRL station, a legendary gudeg stall that has been operating since 1968. In the shop that is open at six in the morning until three this afternoon, you can enjoy a portion of warm dishes with a variety of side dishes. Starting from tofu tempe and bacem chicken, chicken chips, gizzard, to chicken feet. The mixture of sweet and spicy makes the tongue sway! Moreover, the price is very affordable, just Rp. 15,000 with chicken feet or Rp. 20,000 for side dishes.

3. Sarinah

Nasi Bebek Cak Malik

Tired of eating chicken meat continuously as a side dish to eat? You can change the menu by eating duck rice dish. In the Sarinah area, precisely on Jalan Wahid Hasyim, close to the Holiday Inn Express Hotel, right on the left is the Cak Malik duck rice stall which opens around five in the afternoon.

The recommendations from bus stops to bus stops mention that the seasonings and chili sauce are really good! The fried duck also doesn't smell prengus, one portion is enough to reach Rp 17,000 in the bag. For those who don't like ducks, there are grilled chicken that is equally tasty.

Claypot Popo

When it rains it's best to eat a hearty, warm dish, right? You can try Claypot Popo, which is located close to the Transjakarta shelter of Bank Indonesia and the Sarinah stop.

If you are still confused, you can get off at Sarj TJ stop and then walk about 10 minutes to Sabang, this one stall is right before the T-junction, opposite Oey Coffee. Besides claypot dishes, here they say the dimsum dish is also delicious!

Interesting Tourist Attractions around the Jakarta bus stop

1. Old Town

The old town area or often referred to as Old Batavia has indeed become one of the favorite places in Jakarta because besides being cheap, there is also much that can be done in the old city. Just as the name suggests the Old City building is full of remnants of ancient homes. The distinctive feature of the Old City is its Fatahillah Museum and the many statues of living humans and the most exciting when on a bicycle with a tour around the Old City. The City area is quite extensive, consisting of the Red House, the Fatahillah Museum, the Ceramics Museum, the Wayang Museum and up to the Port of Batavia. Oh yes in the Old City there is a Batavia café which is a place for culinary tasting with the feel of the old style buildings. How to access the Old City can be by busway towards the City (Rp. 3500) or by train to the city. From the busway stop or the city station it is a 10 minute walk to the Old Town area. The Old Town area is open from morning to night but for the museum it is only until 5 pm. For the night quite a lot of people who visit the Old City.

2. Taman Mini Indonesia Indah

If you want to get to know more about Indonesian culture both traditional houses, traditional clothes, traditional weapons from each region then TMII will be the choice because in the Taman Mini Indonesia Indah area there are platforms to get to know Indonesia who are looking for relations with it. Besides that, TMII often has interesting shows and IMAX Golden Snail Theater, to watch 3D. Actually 4 places of worship for 4 each religion can be seen at TMII. I like TMII the most and if I want to ride in a vehicle because it can be uprooted on foot try miniature Indonesia all day. Entrance ticket to TMII is IDR 15,000. Oh yes, in addition to culture there are also many TMII tourism options namely SnowBay Water Park, Golden Conch Flower Park, Freshwater World and Insect World, Bird Park and Bekasi Park, Indonesian Museum, Indonesian Soldier Museum, Indonesian Stamp Museum, Heritage Museum, Heritage Museum, Transportation Museum, Museum New Electricity and Energy, Telecommunications Museum, National Sports Museum, Asmat Museum, Indonesian Komodo Fauna Museum and Reptile Park, Timor-Leste Museum, Science and Technology Demonstration Center, Oil and Gas Museum (GAWITRA), Information Museum, Bayt AL-QUR'AN and the Istiqlal Museum.

3. National Monument (MONAS)

It would not be legitimate to visit Jakarta if you did not visit MONAS, at least ask for one of the replies for the first time setting foot in Jakarta. Entry into the Monas area or the National monument is free but if you want to enter the Monas then visitors pay Rp 5,000 and if you want to enter the peak of Monas then pay again. The first experience of setting foot at Monas in 2008 and then carrying a suitcase up to the top of Monas was truly the most grievous travel experience I have ever experienced. Continue to take pictures in front of Monas so that the apdol can be seen in Jakarta. Eh, after living in Jakarta, they rarely go to MONAS but Monas is still highly recommended at Monas including museums containing about Indonesia such as the meaning of the Garuda symbol or a replica of the struggle statue. The Elephant Museum which I really like because the Elephant museum collection is very varied starting from the relief of Pulo temple to the Raffless statue.

7 tips for taking public transportation

friends often drive using public transportation such as buses or city transportation? Here are some tips for riding public transportation that you should know.

1. Know the destination. When riding public transportation, make sure you know the destination. You do this by looking at the instructions written on the vehicle body, or ask the officer.
2. Stay awake. When riding public transportation, especially in short distances, you should stay awake and alert. Do not let your destination be missed or your belongings lost because of a fall or someone has taken it.
3. Bring enough goods. Bring enough and only as much as necessary. No need to show off your luxury goods. Showing off fancy onions can lure others to do evil.
4. Select the vehicle to ride. Choose vehicles that are still roadworthy and clean. At night, choose a vehicle whose lights are on.
5. Bring the right money. If you already know the cost, bring money right. Payment using the exact money will certainly be faster.
6. Sit in the space provided. In some public transportation, there is priority seating. Do not sit in this chair
7. Bring electronic money with the balance. If you are riding in a vehicle for which electronic payments are made, make sure the balance is sufficient.

7 Things You Should Not Do When Riding Transjakarta

Transjakarta is now one of the modes of public transportation that is most sought after by Jakarta residents. Apart from being cheap, Transjakarta is also quite comfortable. But as mass transportation, of course PT Transjakarta imposes various written and unwritten regulations for passengers to create mutual comfort. Here are various things that you should not do when riding Transjakarta.

1. Not giving priority to passengers getting down Hurried to the destination usually makes you impatient to get into Transjakarta and immediately continue the journey. However, there are rules for entering TransJakarta. You must prioritize passengers who want to disembark first. Also read: The Convenience of Shopping Tourism Rises in Transjakarta Tanah Abang Explorer This is actually not without reason. If you force your way in first, then the passenger passageway will be blocked. This will actually slow down the process of passenger ups and downs. Usually the officer will urge passengers to give way to the passengers to get off first. So it's better to follow the appeals of the officers.

2. Not sitting on the bench properly In Transjakarta there are various regulations regarding the passenger seat that you must pay attention to. For example there is a special bench for women, priority benches that are usually red, to a special section for wheelchairs. Make sure you understand the personal conditions and choose the right bench so as not to seize the rights of other passengers.

3. Eating, drinking, smoking Aruran about the prohibition of eating, drinking and smoking during the trip was clearly displayed in the Transjakarta fleet. It aims to maintain cleanliness within Transjakarta so that it is comfortable for all passengers. Not only eating, drinking, and smoking, you are also prohibited from carrying objects that smell pungent and pets.

4. Sitting on the Transjakarta floor Transjakarta conditions are full and do not get a seat often makes some Transjakarta passengers tempted to sit on the floor or stairs down Transjakarta. But this you shouldn't do. It is feared that sitting on the floor will make the atmosphere inside TransJakarta disorderly and disrupt circulation of passengers. So it's better to hold on for a while. Or if your condition is indeed not possible to stand, ask the priority bench on the officer.

5. Not giving a seat to priority passengers Have you ever felt upset when you have gotten a seat, but suddenly there are other passengers who ask for your seat? If so, it's better to think twice before deciding to get angry. If the conditions of other passengers really need a seat, you better just give it. It's even wiser if you don't pretend to sleep until you put the headset on your ear to avoid priority passengers asking for your seat.

6. Chatting or calling in a voice too loud There are no written rules that prohibit you from chatting or calling in Transjakarta. However, it would be wise if you decide not to chat or call in a voice that is too loud. Transjakarta is public transportation. Chatting or calling too loudly can be annoying for many other passengers.

7. Encouraging other passengers In crowded conditions, you may often accidentally push or be pushed by other passengers. If the condition was indeed accidental it might not be a problem. But try not to deliberately encourage other passengers to get a comfortable standing position. As much as possible find a place to hold and make sure your position is balanced and does not interfere with other passengers. Hopefully some of this if done will make your trip more comfortable, safe, and enjoyable.

One Day Travel

Ever traveled around Jakarta? Wow, maybe that's normal. How about a tour around Jakarta using a tour bus? You should try a day tour in Jakarta using this one bus! Come on, see the review !.

What is a tour bus?

Tour buses, or better known as 'Mpok Siti,' are public facilities in the form of double-decker buses. This bus is provided by the DKI Jakarta provincial government to travel free of charge through typical places that are symbols of the City of Jakarta.

Actually, the double-decker bus has existed in Jakarta before, but its function is not as a tourist bus, but rather as public transportation. In 2014, precisely in February, this level bus was operated again and came up with more interesting conditions, but its function was specifically for sightseeing around Jakarta.

At the beginning of the operation, this double-decker bus was equipped with tour guides which added to the comfort of traveling, but this year there was no more. But do not worry, the comfort obtained will not be reduced. Moreover, this year the number of tour buses is increased, so you don't need to worry about waiting too long. This new bus is slightly different from the color, because it is a donation from the Coca-Cola company. So the color is red.

Make sure you choose the right place so you can see the good view. Many people recommend the front seat, as the most suitable place to enjoy the view.

What do you do if you want to take this level bus?

Do not worry! If you want to try this bus, just wait at the bus stop that has a level bus and says city tour. You can find these stops at the Hotel Indonesia Roundabout, Pecenongan, National Museum, Pasar Baru, Istiqlal Mosque, National Monument (Monas), City Hall, and Sarinah.

How about the time? Last year, this level bus operated from 09.00 - 19.00 Monday - Saturday, and 12.00 - 19.00 on Sunday. However, since the enactment of the rules of 2-wheeled vehicles is prohibited from entering the protocol lane (including Jl. M.H. Thamrin which is a tourist bus route) on weekdays, this level bus has changed its function to become a bus feeder for motorists who want to go to the protocol lane.

On weekends, then this bus returns to its original function, which is as a tourist bus. Oh yes, because there are a limited number of seats on the bus and are not allowed to stand, so for those of you who don't want to queue for too long, avoid riding at busy stops, such as the National Monument (Monas) stop.

Which route does the double decker bus take?

The double-decker bus does not stop anywhere. Therefore you must know the routes this bus goes through.

Here are two routes this tourist bus passes through:

Route 1: Monday - Friday (9 stops)

Hotel Indonesia Roundabout Stop - National Museum Stop - Pecenongan Bus Stop - Pasar Baru Bus Stop - Istiqlal Mosque Stop - Monas Stop 1 - Monas Stop 2 - City Hall Stop - Sarinah Bus Stop.

Route 2: Saturday - Sunday (5 stops)

Hotel Indonesia Roundabout Stop - National Museum Stop - Sarinah GKI Stop - Istiqlal Mosque Stop (Monas 1), City Hall Stop (Monas 2).

That's a little review about this tour bus. How? Interesting isn't this a day trip in Jakarta? Many foreign tourists have tried to use this bus for day trips, how about you? Especially those of you who claim to be citizens of the City of Jakarta, don't want to be outdone by those foreign tourists, yes. Good luck.
